Every employee shall, on demand, show his/her card for inspection to any person authorized by the Management. In case of loss of identity card, it has to be reported immediately in writing and replacement of the card will be provided on payment. When a employee ceases to be in the employment of the PIMS, he/she shall surrender his/her identity card to the Personnel Department before his/her final settlement is effected.
- 6.5 Security Search:- Any staff shall be liable to be detained for search by any of the Security personnel or by any Administrative authority, if it is suspected that the concerned staff is in wrongful possession of any property belonging to the institution provided that the search shall not be made except in the presence of two other persons of the same sex of the suspected staff.
- 6.6 Superannuation: - Every employee shall compulsorily retire when:
- a. He/she attains the age of 60.
 - b. Declared medically unfit by the medical board

7 APPOINTMENTS

- 7.1 Every employee at the time of the appointments shall be given a written order specifying the terms of appointment signed by the Appointing Authority. The employee shall sign a copy of the same as a token of his /her acceptance of the appointment and its terms. The employee is not permitted to engage in any other employment, consultation, trade or business including part time activity without prior written permission of the management.
- 7.2 All appointments are subject to medical fitness certified by a duly authorised medical person, approved by the management. The management may, whenever necessary require a staff to be examined for medical fitness by a duly approved authority.

8 CONFIRMATION

- 8.1 All appointees shall be considered as confirmed on completion of probation for a period of one year except where otherwise specified. This probation period may be extended by a period not exceeding six months at the absolute discretion of the management.
- 8.2 The appointment of a probationer is liable to be terminated at any time during the period of probation or extended period of probation or before his/her confirmation in writing, with one month's notice or compensation in lieu of notice and without assigning any reason whatsoever.

9 RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE EMPLOYEE

- 9.1 Appointment letter / contract letter must be received by all employees with the terms and conditions of the employment before joining work. It lists the rights and obligations of both parties.
- 9.2 All employees are required to work five days a week, and for full days on alternate Saturdays, Sundays being weekly holidays, unless otherwise decided. Normally 8½ hours inclusive of ½ hour break for meals constitute a work-day. However, for staff in certain departments functioning on round the clock, the spread-over of working hours may exceed 8 ½ hours depending on the situational factors.
- 9.3 All employees shall be required to attend emergency call duty as and when called for or on any day, including leave, weekly holiday and national and festival holidays.
- 9.4 Internal complaints cell: PIMS has a Women's Harassment Cell in existence since 2006. It has now been reconstituted as "Internal Complaints Committee" as per the University Grants Commission (UGC) notification dated 2nd May 2016. This committee will function with the objective of hearing, resolving and suggesting action in case of harassment of employees at the workplace, institutional transport vehicles, campus and peripheral centers.

9.5 Statutory Benefits:

a. Gratuity:

Gratuity is a statutory benefit paid to the employees who have rendered continuous services for at least five (5) years.

It is a lump-sum amount paid to an employee based on the duration of his total service. The benefit gratuity is payable to an employee on cessation of employment either by resignation, death, retirement, by taking the last drawn salary as the basis for the calculation.

- b. CL with pay is eligible to all staff for 12 days per year. If a staff joins duty after the 15th of any month, he/she shall not be eligible for CL with pay for that month; so also if any employee leaves before the 15th of any month, he/she shall not be eligible for CL for that month.
- c. CL shall be granted for not more than three days at any one time.
- d. CL cannot be combined with any other kind of leave except leave on LOP, weekly offs, compensatory off, Sunday and public holidays. However the total leave of absence on this account should not exceed 6 days at a time including a weekend and public holiday.
- e. CL cannot be taken on either side of the weekend / public holiday (i.e Friday/Saturday and Monday). If taken it will be treated as 4/3 days of CL.
- f. CL can be availed for half-a-day and shall be treated as such.

11.3.2 Earned Leave (EL)

- a. Maximum number of EL shall be 24 days for Group II staff and 20 days for rest of the staff per year of service.
- b. New appointee shall be eligible for EL only on completion of one year of service.
- c. EL should be applied at least 5 days in advance. This is to ensure that there is no shortfall of staff in the department to carry out routine duty including emergency.
- d. Not more than 50% of the EL for that year can be carried forward.
- e. Accumulation of EL shall not exceed 90 days for general staff and 120 days for Group-II staff. Any leave beyond this will lapse at the end of the year.
- f. EL cannot be availed for half a day.
- g. EL can be either prefixed or suffixed to a weekend / public holiday. In case the EL is applied between two weekends/public holidays, then the shorter of the two (weekend/public holiday) will be included in the EL.
- h. EL cannot be combined with any other form of leave except ML. Any extension of EL due to sickness will be considered as EL only unless supported by a medical certificate from the SSHC.
- i. Amended on 06.12.2018
50% of Earned Leave may be encashed once a year up to a maximum of 10 days for staff who are covered under the Union Settlement.
- j. Amended on 25.10.2021
When an employee puts in his/her resignation he/she can avail and adjust the Earned Leave during the notice period.

11.3.3 Sick Leave (SL)

- a. Sick leave with pay shall be a maximum of 12 days per year.
- b. New appointee shall be eligible for SL only after completion of one year of service.
- c. Any SL request for more than one day shall be supported by a Medical Certificate from the Staff Student Health Clinic (SSHC) countersigned by the physician assigned by Medical Superintendent. Any medical certificate from outside the institute which is for more than 3 days shall be referred to the medical board for ratification.
- d. Sick leave can be accumulated to a maximum of 60 days for general staff and 90 days for Group-II staff. Any leave beyond this will lapse at the end of the year.

- e. SL can be combined with EL & Off

11.3.4 Maternity Leave (ML)

- a. ML is admissible for staff for two or more surviving children.
- b. Maximum number permissible is 180 days with full pay for two surviving children. ML can be availed up to 8 weeks before the expected date of delivery.
- c. For women conceiving after having two children, the duration of paid ML shall be 12 weeks only. This leave can be availed up to 6 weeks before the expected date of delivery.
- d. ML for adoptive and commissioning mothers is 12 weeks from the date of adoption for children below 3 months.
- e. M.L can be combined only with EL. In case of any complication related to the pregnancy, SL can be prefixed to the ML on certification from the institution's obstetrician.
- f. No CL, SL or EL will accrue for the period spent on ML.
- g. In case of miscarriage or abortion after 6 weeks or before 28 weeks of pregnancy, the incumbent shall be eligible for 6 weeks of ML with full pay subject to prior check up at the PIMS Hospital.
- h. Staffs who are covered under ESI will get Maternity period salary from ESI.

11.3.5 Leave On Loss Of Pay (LOP)

- a. Under extraordinary circumstances, Leave on LOP up to 15 days continuous in a calendar year may be granted on recommendations of the HOD. The nature of the exigency shall be clearly recorded.
- b. Leave on LOP for more than 15 days upto one month of the leave already granted may be sanctioned by the Personnel Manager only to cover periods of sickness or other extraordinary personal situations.

11.4 Compensatory Off

Compensatory off is allowed for working on any declared holidays, Sundays and extra Saturdays (more than 2 Saturdays per month). Attending duties on those days, by staff should be with prior approval of the concerned HODs. Compensatory off should be availed within a period of 30 days. In any case, compensatory off cannot be accumulated for more than 2 days. It can be combined only with CL.

12 NATIONAL AND FESTIVAL HOLIDAYS

12.1 The management may declare upto a maximum of 12 paid holidays in a Calendar year.

12.2 A Circular specifying the days to be observed as holidays shall be notified. Those of the employees who are required to work on any of these days shall be entitled to a compensatory holiday.

13 PERFORMANCE APPRAISAL OF EMPLOYEES

Performance of every employee will be appraised by the management before giving confirmation, annual increment, and promotions as and when required.

Performance Appraisal will be done in the format and manner solely decided by the management and the conclusion of such appraisal will be final and will be binding upon all concerned.

14 REDRESSAL OF GRIEVANCE OF EMPLOYEES

All complaints of grievance arising out of employment including those relating to unfair treatment and wrongful application of service rules shall be submitted to Grievance Cell in the first instance and if the concerned staff is not satisfied with the decision or action taken by the cell, he/she may refer the matter to the higher authority who shall thereafter in consultation with the concerned authority examine the matter expeditiously and intimate the decision taken to the concerned staff member. If the employee is still not satisfied with the decision, he/she is permitted to refer the matter to the highest authority for a decision.
